

Argyle LifeGroup Study Guide, Glory of Christmas, part 1, 12-06-2020

1. Read Matthew 11:28-30

2. Your Good Shepherd can carry you. He not only can carry you, He wants to carry you. When there seems to be no way, God will _____ _ _____.

3. God is strong enough and He is faithful enough to carry the heavy weight that is on your shoulders, especially during the _____ season.

4. The Hebrew word for “glory” is “kavod”. Kavod not only means “glory” it also means _____.

5. The pressures of Christmas can cause us to miss The _____ of Christmas.

6. Could it be that changing your plans is part of God’s plan for your life?

7. We can make all of the plans we want, but sometimes the circumstances of life, and the providence of God can rearrange our well-intentioned plans.

8. Ponder these promises of God in your heart today. Jeremiah 29:11, Proverbs 3:5-6, Romans 8:28, Proverbs 16:9, Proverbs 19:21, 1 Corinthians 2:9, Isaiah 14:24, Jeremiah 1:5

9. There’s nothing wrong with making plans. Someone said, “To fail to plan, is a plan to fail.” We all need plans so that we can know what plans God needs to change!

10. Sometimes God works in supernatural ways to show us His plans for us. That’s what He did in the life of a teenage girl 2000 years ago. Read Luke 1:26-38

11. God’s plan is “kavod”. It’s full of glory and at the same time extremely important. Only God could come up with a plan like that. A plan that would make it possible for all who call on the name of Jesus to be saved from their sins.
